COMMISSIONERS'

OFFICE

- Appointing Paul R. Malchesky to the Morley Library Board of Trustees to finish out a term expiring March 23, 2019.

- Awarding a bid contract in the amount of $297,187 to Farber Specialty Vehicles, Inc. to build a mobile command center.

"We had three vendors bid on this project; the lowest and best was Farber Specialty Vehicles out of Columbus," said Larry Green, director of Lake County Emergency Management Agency. "The other two were from Wisconsin and Montana."

He said a committee of fire chiefs and public safety officials review the specifications which came in and chose the winning bid. The vehicle is being paid for by a Homeland Security grant.

The current command vehicle will be auctioned for sale.

- Authorizing advertising for proposals for transportable radiation portal monitors for the Lake County Emergency Management Agency with a bid opening date of Aug. 7.

"This is the second portion of the same grant. This will fund up to approximately 10 transportable monitors that we can use to enhance our homeland security efforts in the Ohio region," Greene said.

- Authorizing execution of an agreement with the Fair Housing Resource Center, Inc. for the Homeless Crisis Response Program (HCRP) in the amount of $40,303.

"This is a grant through Ohio Development Services Agency ... and it's more for a prevention and a case management activity," said Marian Norman, program manager for Lake County Planning and Community Development.

The focus will be to assist people working part-time for minimum wage who are in two weeks of being evicted.

- Approving plans, specifications and estimates of costs for the Lake County Administration Building

Parking Lot Rehabilitation Project and authorizing advertising for bids with a bid opening date of Aug. 14.

The project is being funded with $100,000 from an Ohio Environmental Protection Agency Nonpoint Source Implementation grant.

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS

• UTILITIES

LCDU Director Rick Martin said, in order to replace and repair old waterlines in the county at the rate they would like would require about $8 million a year, but the county only has $3 million to spend annually.

• DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Director Bill Margalis reported there have been some changes to the Affordable Care Act. Some employer mandates have been delayed until January 2015.

"The portion that has been postponed is the penalty portion," he said, adding the employers of 50 or more people are still supposed to provide health insurance for those working 30 or more hours per week.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

The commissioners adjourned to executive session to discuss personnel compensation and collective bargaining-JFS.
