IMPORTANT: In addition to Supreme Court of Ohio course offerings, check with your local probate court for other possible

All Ohio guardians of adults are required to participate in the following education, according to the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio 66.06 and 66.07: a one-time six-hour fundamentals course and a three-hour continuing education course for each following year.

Course Offerings

To help meet this requirement, the Supreme Court of Ohio is offering free courses to guardians of adults. These courses are offered in three ways:

1. Live courses.
2. Live broadcasts to local sites.
3. Online education.

The six-hour online course is divided into four modules and will be made available online to individuals that prefer the self-study approach.

Online Module 1 Layperson - Available September 1, 2015

Online Module 2 Layperson - Available October 1, 2015

Online Module 3 Layperson - Available November 5, 2015

Online Module 4 Layperson - Coming later this fall

The 2015 online modules must be completed by December 31, 2015. The 2016 online course will become available on or before February 1, 2016.
