

In our culture we have "expectations" on how we should act or behave, which helps us get along with each other. We call these: Societal expectations: "Expectations for living together as a group in situations requiring that we deal with one another."

Choose one societal expectation that includes tobacco and alcohol use. Write on the lines below how this societal expectation conflicts with or conforms to what our parents are telling us.

Parent Signature _____

Student Signature _____