Press Release April 20, 2011

On Tuesday April 19th, 2011, Fugitive from Justice, Thomas G. Allen, (D.O.B. 08-19-1972) who was wanted in conjunction with attempted murder and aggravated burglary charges from the January 15th, 2011 Perry Township stabbing of Carl J Adams, was taken into custody without incident at the Eldorado Hotel in New Castle, Pennsylvania and is currently being held in the Lawrence County Jail awaiting extradition back to Lake County, Ohio.

Agents from the U.S. Marshall Service's Violent Fugitive Task Force and members of the Shenango Township Police Department, acting on information received from a tip, surrounded the hotel and took Mr. Allen into custody without incident on the Lake County issued arrest warrant. Mr. Allen faces no additional charges in Pennsylvania.
