- Teresa Palm and Melanie Hale from Job and Family Services announced that April is Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Month to bring awareness to the fact that abuse does happen every day in Lake County with over 4,000 calls in 2011. The 5th Annual Pinwheels for Prevention Event Kick-off will be on Wednesday, April 4, 2012 at 12 noon. A new event this year will be on Wednesday, April 11, 2012 and is called “Wear Blue to Work Day” and businesses and community members are encouraged to participate.

- The Commissioners are very appreciative of what Job and Family Services does to protect our county's most vulnerable citizens, our children. The county's goal is to reduce the number of pinwheels that are displayed every year that indicates the number of child abuse calls. And, we extend a big thank you to the voters who support our children services levy, so that the services provided by Job and Family Services are adequately underwritten.
