Cole Eye Institute

Many top ophthalmologists will advise you to seek out a nationally recognized research institution like Cleveland Clinic for your laser vision surgery. That way, you can be sure you're getting a highly experienced surgeon along with the most advanced laser technology. You have a choice of experts at the Cole Eye Institute, and you can be sure you'll receive personalized care from your doctor at your screening, on surgery day and during follow-ups.

The Cleveland Clinic Cole Eye Institute is ranked Best in Ohio. Our laser vision correction specialists, among the most experienced in the world, routinely perform a higher percentage of custom procedures than the national average, which includes stand-alone surgery outlets.

We offer:

- Total care by the same surgeon from initial consultation through post-surgical follow-up
- A relaxing, custom-designed Laser Surgery Suite with plenty of FREE parking, a comfortable, private waiting room and easy access to nearby eateries, including Au Bon Pain
- The increased accuracy and fast-healing properties of today's most advanced laser technologies
- Exceptionally satisfied patients – more than 99% of our patients tell us they're satisfied with their doctors and more than 97% would recommend us to their friends
