REMINDERS

1. Evidence of valuation (such as an appraisal) must relate to the total value of the parcel, including both land and buildings. If, for example, your land is overvalued but your buildings are undervalued in a like amount, there will not be justification for a reduction in value.
2. The Board of Revision may increase or decrease the total value of any parcel included in this complaint.
3. The Board of Revision may offer a settlement. If the Board does so, you will be mailed an offer and if you agree with the offer, you will have two weeks to return the acceptance. If we do not receive it within the two weeks, a Board of Revision hearing will be scheduled.
4. Refer to O.R.C. Section 5715.19 for persons permitted to file complaints against the valuation of property.
5. Section 5715.19 of the Ohio Revised Code requires the Board of Revision to notify the affected School Board, within thirty days after the last date on which such complaints may be filed, of all complaints requesting an increase/decrease greater or less than $50,000 market value or $17,500 taxable value. If your request is greater or less than this amount, the School Board has the right to file a counter-complaint against your original complaint.
6. Your case will be governed by the Lake County Board of Revision's Rules of Procedure. To see the Rules of Procedure please go to www.lakecountyohio.gov/auditor/forms.aspx or contact our office at carrie.valvoda@lakecountyohio.gov or (440) 350-2221.
7. The information contained herein is not offered as and should not be construed as legal advice. Persons should consult a licensed attorney for legal issues regarding complaints.

PROCEDURE AFTER FILING YOUR COMPLAINT FORM

You will be notified by certified mail of your hearing date and time.

A staff appraiser may review your property prior to the hearing.

The Lake County Board of Revision, which consists of the County Auditor, a County Commissioner and County Treasurer, or their representatives, will hear your testimony.

Most residential hearings average 15 to 20 minutes.

Most commercial/industrial hearings average 30 to 40 minutes.

At your appeal, please provide all the evidence you have to support the value you are declaring in question #8. This may include an expert appraisal, any recent sales of your property, or comparable sales of other property. Any documentation that you have but DO NOT present to the Board may not be considered by the Board and may not be considered for any subsequent appeal of the Board's decision, unless good cause is shown for the failure to present that evidence. Sales can be within 24 months of the lien date of the appeal (January 1, 2016 - January 1, 2018 for a tax year 2018 or newer appeal). Photos are very helpful in illustrating conditions that cannot be seen from the street.

You will be notified of the Board's decision by certified mail.

If you disagree with the Lake County Board of Revision's decision, you may file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals in Columbus or with the Lake County Common Pleas Court in Painesville. Whether you file with the Board of Tax Appeals in Columbus or with the Lake County Common Pleas Court in Painesville, you must also file a copy with the Lake County Board of Revision at the same time or your appeal will be dismissed (pursuant to O.R.C. Section 5717.01 and O.R.C. Section 5717.05, a copy of the appeal must also be filed with the Lake County Board of Revision). All documents must be filed within thirty (30) days from the date on the notice of decision.

If you have any questions, you may call (440) 350-2221.

NOTE: YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYING YOUR TAXES WHEN DUE EVEN IF YOUR COMPLAINT IS PENDING BEFORE THE BOARD OF REVISION. LATE PAYMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO INTEREST AND/OR PENALTIES.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM

FILING DEADLINE: A COMPLAINT FOR THE CURRENT TAX YEAR MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE COUNTY AUDITOR ON OR BEFORE MARCH 31 OF THE FOLLOWING TAX YEAR. A COUNTER-COMPLAINT MUST BE FILED WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER RECEIPT OF NOTICE FROM THE AUDITOR THAT AN ORIGINAL COMPLAINT HAS BEEN FILED.

WHO MAY FILE: Any person owning taxable real property in the county, the board of county commissioners, the county prosecutor, the county treasurer, the board of township trustees of any township with territory in the county, the board of education of any school district with territory in the county, or the mayor or legislative authority of any municipal corporation with territory in the county may file a valuation complaint.

TENDER PAY: If the owner of a property files a complaint against the valuation of that property, then, while such complaint is pending, the owner is entitled to tender to the county treasurer an amount of taxes based on the valuation claimed for such property in the complaint. NOTE: If the amount tendered is less than the amount finally determined, interest will be charged on the difference. In addition, if the amount finally determined equals or exceeds the amount originally billed, a penalty will be charged on the difference between the amount tendered and the final amount.

MULTIPLE PARCELS: Only parcels that (1) are in the same taxing district and (2) have identical ownership may be included in one complaint. Otherwise, separate complaints must be used. However, for ease of administration, parcels that (1) are in the same taxing district, (2) have identical ownership, and (3) form a single economic unit should be included in one complaint. The increase or decrease in valuation may be separately stated for each parcel or listed as an aggregate sum for the economic unit. If more than three parcels are included in one complaint, use additional sheets of paper.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: Valuation complaints must relate to the total value of both land and buildings. The Board of Revision may increase or decrease the total value of any parcel included in a complaint. The Board will notify all parties not less than ten days prior to the hearing of the time and place the complaint will be heard. The complainant should submit any documents supporting the claimed valuation to the Board prior to the hearing. The Board may also require the complainant and/or owner to provide the Board additional information with the complaint and may request additional information at the hearing, including purchase and lease agreements, closing statements, appraisal reports, construction costs, rent rolls, and detailed income and expense statements for the property.

Section 5715.19(G) provides that "a complainant shall provide to the Board of Revision all information or evidence within his knowledge or possession that affects the real property" in question. Evidence or information that is not presented to the Board cannot later be presented on any appeal, unless good cause is shown for the failure to present such evidence or information to the Board.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR QUESTION 10. If property was sold in the last three years, attach the purchase agreement, escrow statement, closing statement, or other evidence if available. If the buyer and seller were or are related or had any common business interests, attach an explanation. If any other items of value were included with the sale of the real estate, attach a description of those items. Show the value of those items and explain how the values were determined.

NOTICE: R. C. 5715.19, as amended by H. B. 694, effective March 30, 1999, added some additional persons who may file a valuation complaint. Those additional persons are (1) the owner's spouse, (2) an appraiser who holds a designation from a professional assessment organization retained by the owner, (3) a licensed public accountant, a licensed general or residential real estate appraiser, or a licensed real estate broker retained by the owner, (4) an officer, salaried employee, partner, or a member of an owner, if the owner is a firm, company, association, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, and (5) a trustee, if the owner is a trust. Since that statute has been declared to be unconstitutional by an Ohio court of appeals, the Board of Tax Appeals and many county Boards of Revision have been dismissing complaints filed by those individuals, if they are not attorneys at law. Please be advised that if you choose a non-attorney to prepare and file your complaint, it will be subject to dismissal and may not be heard on its merits. If you have any questions you may contact us at (440) 350-2221 or at appraisal@lakecountyohio.gov.
