Business Roundtable Meeting Announced: February 23, 2022

The Lake County Treasurer's Office and Board of Lake County Commissioners announce the initial meeting of the "Lake County Business Roundtable Discussion Series" on February 23, 2022 at 8:00 a.m.

The roundtable discussion will serve as an open forum for local businesses to share their experiences over the previous 18 months and provide opinions on improving the local business environment. Topics include, but are not limited to, workforce, resource collaboration, supply chain concerns and overall economic conditions. The initial meeting will focus on listening to the needs and concerns of the private sector as it relates to the pandemic and potential assistance from the County. In addition to the County Commissioners, representatives from the various County agencies will be in attendance.

"As a small business owner I can appreciate the challenges presented by the pandemic and look forward to working with our local businesses in a proactive fashion," said Commission President John R. Hamercheck.

"Treasurer Zuren, along with the County Commissioners are dedicated to creating a business friendly environment in Lake County and private sector input is critical to accomplish this goal," added Commissioner John Plecnik.

"I am looking forward to this first meeting. There is tremendous value as an elected official to listen to local business owners regarding their ideas and strategies to improve the business environment in Lake County," said Treasurer Mike Zuren.

"One of our primary responsibilities is to listen to the needs of our constituents and that is what I intend to do at the first meeting," noted Commissioner Ron Young.

The event will be held at the in the Lake Erie Conference Room of the Lake County Administration Center, Building A located at 105 Main St., Painesville, Ohio. The event will be limited to twenty businesses. Please Contact Treasurer's Office – Sherri Falkenberg 440-350-2540 to RSVP and for additional questions.
