Richard J. Regovich Sworn in as 81st Lake County Commissioner

PAINESVILLE, Ohio, November 30, 2022– Richard J. Regovich became the 81st Commissioner in and for Lake County as he was sworn in on the morning of November 29th, 2022.

“Thank you, Lake County! I worked hard for your vote; I will work hard to keep it. Thank you for the chance to serve this wonderful county of great people. Together, we move forward,” said Commissioner Richard J. Regovich.

“Rich has been an excellent Mayor for the City of Willowick,” said Commissioner John Hamercheck. “I look forward to seeing all the knowledge and expertise he brings with him as Commissioner.”

Richard J. Regovich was born and raised in the City of Willowick with 5 brothers to hard-working parents. Rich attended Willoughby Eastlake Schools. He then enrolled at Lakeland Community College.

Richard has been married to his wife, Lynn, for 33 years and together they raised their two children in Willowick. Their son, Brian (22) is currently in Graduate School at Baldwin Wallace University. Their daughter Lizzie (20) currently attends the University of Mount Union.

“Rich’s continued service to others will make an impactful difference to Lake County. The opportunities to benefit our residents are endless, and I look forward to working with Rich to make them happen,” said Commissioner Mark Tyler.

Richard started Willowick Hearts and Hammers to help the senior citizens and any other member of the community in need. He has served on the Willowick Planning Commission, Willowick Charter Review Committee, and was appointed as Willowick Ward 1 Councilman. He has served as Willowick Mayor for 6 years. Two tenets which drive Richard are service and his faith. He has volunteered at countless school functions, sporting events and church festivals.
