This letter is being sent to advise you that the City Council adopted Chapter 1375 – Vacant Property/Building Registration in 2011. The ordinance requires property owners to register vacant properties. An owner is defined as follows: Any person, in whose name the property is titled, and any person, agent, servicing company, firm, third party, financial institution or bank that has an interest in the property as a result of an assignment, sale, mortgage, transfer of a mortgage, or similar instrument or having an agreement with any one of the above for the purpose of securing and/or managing the property.

If you are interested in purchasing a vacant property please be aware there may or may not be outstanding Vacant Property Registration fees, which the new owner will be responsible for paying.

All properties must be registered 90 days after vacancy. The fees for the registration are as follows:
